
You are invited to an information and networking evening about Australian Volunteers for International Development, an Australian Government initiative

This event is co-hosted by the WA Young Crawford Group and Scope Global.

Hear from a returned volunteer and learn more about the personal and in-country impacts of his/her placement, as well as the links between agricultural research and international development

5:00pm – 7:00pm, Thursday 5th February 2015

University of Western Australia Agricultural Lecture Theatre, 35 Stirling Highway, Crawley, Perth

To RSVP click here by Friday 30th January

Please join us for canapés, drinks, and the opportunity to connect with inspirational individuals.

We hope to see you on the night!
